Monday Morning Memo to Rotary Club Presidents

September 10, 2007

Happy Monday and welcome to week eleven of your fabulous year!

I am trying out a blog for the recipients of these Memos to try out for responding to the information posted and exchange ideas. Check it out at rotary6950blog@blogspot.com.

This is a short message for you - just consider this:

Leadership Beatitudes of Rotarians

BLESSED is the LEADER who will first master himself before he seeks to master his co-Rotarians;

BLESSED is the LEADER who has not sought the high offices, but who has been drafted into service because of his known ability and willingness to serve unselfishly;

BLESSED is the LEADER who knows where he is going, why he is going, and how to get there;

BLESSED is the LEADER who knows no discouragement, who strives valiantly, despite the great odds, the stress and spur of difficulties and challenge, because there is no effort without errors and shortcomings;

BLESSED is the LEADER who knows how to lead without being dictatorial for true leaders are humble and gentle in victory;

BLESSED is the LEADER who seeks for the best for those he serves because he knows the great enthusiasms, the great devotions, the great achievements;

BLESSED is the LEADER who leads for the good and benefit of all concerned, and not for the personal gratification of his own ideas;

BLESSED is the LEADER who develops leaders while leading, leaders who will eventually lead his own Rotary Club and his district as well;

BLESSED is the LEADER who marches with his co-Rotarians who interprets correctly the signs on the pathway that leads to success;

BLESSED is the LEADER who has his head in the clouds but his feet on the ground;

BLESSED is the LEADER who considers leadership an opportunity for selfless service

Yours in Rotary's Service,

Tim
